NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -When the body of Eaton was taken from the scaffold yesterday, it was conveyed to the college at Ninth and Locust streets, where at ten minutes of 2 o'clock a series of experiments were instituted, with a view, as the friends thought, to the resuscitation of Eaton. Heavy charges from a galvanic battery, artificial infla-tion of the lungs, were resorted to, but while those in charge were able to get up an ap-pearance of life, there was no real vitality. The eyes opened, the chest seemed to be inflated the heart pulsated, and one arm was raised. All these symptoms of life soon subsided, and although strong batteries were brought to bear, and a large quantity of gas was injected, nothing was accomplished except a renewal of the de-ceptive appearance of life. These experiments were continued for an bour. A post mortein was then made, and it was discovered that the neck was not broken, but that death was caused by asphyxia, or suffocation.

—Yesterday afternoon, while James Gray, Barney Morrison, James and John McPeak were at work on the wharf at Lombard street, Schuyl-kill, a pile of lime stored on the wharf slid into the river, carrying the four men with it. They were rescued from the river, but John McPeak was so badly burned by the lime that he had to be removed to the Hospital. The others escaped with less injury, and were taken home.

—About quarter past two o'clock yesterday afternoon Harry Benson, aged four years, was run over by a light express wagon, at Swanson and South streets, and seriously injured about the back. He was taken to the hospital, and Joseph Trainor, the driver of the wagon, was arrested and taken before Alderman McDevitt, who held him to answer. Domestic Affairs.

Foreign Affairs. VIENNA, April 8 .- The Austrian Government has resolved to reduce the army and postpone the call for recruits, on the ground of economy.

PARIS, April 8.—Three public meetings which were held to-day were dispersed by the police, and many arrests were made.

HAVANA, April 8.—Francisco Leon Nuez, a

Cuban by birth, but a naturalized American citizen, and Augustin Medina, are to be garroted to-morrow. They were arrested in January last, in charge of a depot of arms in this city, several police officers having been killed and wounded in the fight which occurred at the time. The Treasurer of the Royal University has fled to the United States with its funds.

The news from the seat of war is so contradictory and partisan as to be utterly unreliable. HAVANA, April 8.—The proposed system of confiscation was before the Administrative Council to-day, and having been declared unprece-dented and unjust, was tabled.

Leopold A. Price is American Consular Agent at Nuevitas, in the absence of Mr. Gibbs, who has gone to Washington.

The British gunboat Mullet arrived to-day from Vera Cruz. The Spanish man-of-war steamer Pizarro has sailed for Nassau.

LONDON, April 8 .- In the House of Commons. this evening, the Hon. Robert Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, submitted the annual budget, in explaining which he said the ministry proposed to deal separately with the general expen-ditures and those for the Abyssinian war. The estimates made by the Hon. G. W. Hunt, his predecessor in office, were £73,000,000, while the receipts were £72,500,000, leaving a deficit of £500,000, which has to be met this year.

He (Mr. Lowe) estimated the expenditures of the present fiscal year at £68,250,000, showing a reduction of £2,250,000 from the estimated expenditures of last year, which was gained chiefly in the Admiralty and War Office. He estimated the revenue of the present fiscal year at £73,000,or an excess over last year of £250,000. So if the Abyssinian war were not to be provided for, the surplus would be £4,500,000. The whole expense of the Abyssinian war was £9,000,000, of which £7,000,000 were expended in India. The country had still £4,000,000 of this amount to pay. The surplus of the present year would just balance the Abyssinian and general deficit.

Under the circumstances, it is desirable to raise a further sum by taxation. He regarded the present means of collection as expensive and unsatisfactory, and said its only warrant was in its antiquity. He proposed to collect the assessed taxes by means of excise licenses, granted at the commencement of each year, on returns to be furnished by the tax-payers. The income tax is to be collected in the same manner. By these measures £3,250,000 will be brought into use for the financial year, in addition to the amount heretofore collected. Out of this amount he proposed a reduction of 1d. upon the income tax, to repeal the import duty on corn and the fire insurance duty, and to rearrange several smaller items. This will give a decrease of £3,000,000, and will leave nearly £500,000 clear surplus. Mr. Hunt, late Chancellor of the Exchequerin reply to Mr. Lowe, said the reduction in the estimates was due to the efforts of the late Government in making the army and navy more effi-

After a long and desultory conversation, the usual resolution of leave to bring in the budget was agreed to:

THE TWITCHELL SUICIDE.

The Coroner's Investigation—Testimony as to the Admission of Visitors to Twitchell's Cell on Wednesday. The Coroner's jury met at the prison yesterday afternoon and received the following testimony: William B. Perkins sworn-I am Superintendent of the prison; I was not present in the cell at evening after 7 o'clock; Twitchell's relatives were there in the course of the afternoon and evening; two keepers were always on that corridor; his relatives were permitted to see him at all reasonable times; Mr. Bringhurst was the last person in the cell last nigh; Twitchell and Eaton were not together during the night, but they could talk to each other from their cell doors; don't know anything of Twite hell saying to Eaton that he would not be nung; great care is always taken to keep from the prisoners every-thing that may be used to take life; Twitchell was not arehed after visitors left, nor the cell amined, for the reason that the officer was directed to be inside the cell, and to occupy a position from which he could see all that passe Rev. George Bringhurst sworn -- I left Twitchell about twenty minutes after 11 o'clock, last I was twice to see him yesterday; from 2 to a quarter of 6 P. M., and from twenty minutes to 8 to twenty minutes after 11; there was a constant stream of visitors during the day; I saw sixteen or eighteen persons in the cell at different times, and George spoke of eight or ten persons visiting him before I got there; we had little time for spiritual conversation until evening; I could hardly get an opportunity to read the Scriptures before then; Charles Perkins was with him until 8 o'clock; at 11 o'clock he got up, wound his watch, handed me the key, and said. "This is I shall never wind my watch again: then meaned the to can early in the morning; by a soon ten see from the deck.

had frequently called on God to strike him dead. otherwise he did not say anything about death Twitchell's father was there in the morning, and sat on the bed close to him; the father had George's hand in his; I don't think any one spoke to George apart from the other visitors; at all times when visitors were in the room one of the keepers was present.

Patrick Cassidy sworn-I am a keeper of the prison; last night the Superintendent destiled everal keepers to remain, and I was one; went to Eaton's cell, and as I was leaving he said to me, you are a friend of mine, and I think you will not hang Twitchell to-morrow; I said, why do you think so? he replied, I have had a talk with him while the doors were open; saw him and wished to encourage him, and said to him, "Die like a man;" he shook his head, held up his finger, and pointing to his mouth, said, "I'll not go with you; mum's the word;" it was then between 9 and 10 o'clock; I reported that to my fellow-keepers, and it was decided to remove everything from the cell that he could do himself njury with; I went into Eaton's cell, collected his knife, fork, spoon, pitcher, saucer, and plate, and he wished me to give them to his wife; I then went to Twitchell's cell and told him the object of my visit, and he helped me to gather up the articles, and everything was removed; he remarked I should search his hat case, which was done, but could not find anything calculated to do mischief; I did not search the prisoner; he did not intimate that he was going to do himself any harm; there were a good many visitors to Twitchell's cell on Wednesday; none were admitted except at Twitchell's request, John Clayton, keeper, sworn—I was in the cell fully an hour in the evening: the father and Mr. Bringburst were there at that time; the prisoner said, "Father, sit beside me, and let me clasp your hand; this is our last meeting on earth." They then sat on the bed and appeared to be affectionate to each other; the father was counselling the son how he should act; at last they got up and clasped each other in an affectionate embrace: the prisoner only left his seat once, to get a drink of water; he was smoking a cigar at the time; don't know where he got the elgar; I had never seen him smoke before in the cell; I had no orders to keep the father and son apart; I did not attempt to stop the smoking, be cause I thought he had obtained consent from the superintendent; I heard that Eaton often smoked.

Andrew Fleming sworn—Mr. Twitchell, Sr., his two sons, and Mr. McCully were in the cell the first yesterday morning; a Mr. Simes was there also; I was in the cell all the time; they had conversations, all of which I heard; I did not see anything pass from the visitors to the prisoners: when I was there in the afternoon Mr. Twitchell, the father, was present, also Mr. O'Byrne and General Collis; there were no close conversations I did not hear; we can't prevent a prisoner and his friends from shaking hands and embracing; all who were in the cell kissed George but the counsel.

Henry S. Peters sworn—I am one of the keepers; I assisted Mr. Cassidy to take the things out of Eaton's and Twitchell's cells; at 5:20 this morning, we looked in Twitchell's cell, and thought him asleep; we drew the bolt and entered and called, but there was no answer; we then felt him, and found him to be dead; we made an examination of the cell on the night before, but not to discover if there were any poisonous sub-stances; I had no suspicion of Twitchell taking his life; so far as I know, no one of the keepers was in the cell after Mr. Bringhurst left.

Mr. Cassidy recalled-At 12 o'clock last night I stopped at Twitchell's cell and looked through the peep-hole; saw George, with the blanket covered over his face; I remained there some time, but did not see him move, and I called the watchman; he made the same examination I did, and we concluded he was asleep; at 2 o'clock we again visited him and saw him in the same position; at a quarter past 5 o'clock I again saw Twitchell, and as he did not answer a call I opened the iron door, entered, and called again; making no answer I put my hand on his and discovered him to be dead. Dr. E. B. Shapleigh sworn—I made an inspection of the body of George Twitchell this morn-ing; I found him extended on the bed, limbs extended, with mouth and eyes partially open: there was an appearance of repose somewhat peculiar; saw no signs of convulsions; the body was still warm, but the arms, feet, and legs were cold. This afternoon, assisted by Drs. Levis, Butcher, Smyth, Packard, and Adler, I made a post mortem examination. The eyes were examined first, and a peculiar dryness about the corners was observed; there was a stain on the lower lip, was examined, the blood-vessels of which were found to be excessively congested, and a smell of prussic acid was noticeable, besides a peculiar redness of the blood; that which ran upon the bench and floor did not coagulate; the angs were congested, the heart was flaccid and contained fluid blood; the liver was in a normal condition; the stomach contained but a small quantity of fluid, no solid food; the mucous membrane of the stomach was in a state of congestion; the odor of the prussic acid was observable wherever the body was opened: I had no doubt on my mind of the cause of death from the examination, but in searching the cell I discovered a bottle wrapped in paper in the toe of a boot. It contains a solution of cyanide of potassium, which is a deadly poison; the bottle is a half ounce one, and i about half full; a portion of it was evidently poured in a tincup by the prisoner, and swal-lowed by him as he lay on the bed. There is no doubt that George S, Twitchell, Jr., came to his death from poison administered by himself. The other physicians all concurred with Dr. Shapleigh as to the cause of death.

The jury, at this point of the examination, adjourned until Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, when the taking of testimony will be resumed.

PROPOSALS

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS, BRIDGES, SEWERS, ETC. OFFICE OF CHIEF COM-MISSIONER, No. 104 S. FIFTH Street. PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 8, 1869.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8, 1869.

NOTICH TO CONTRACTORS.

Scaled Proposals will be received at the office of the Chief Commissioner of Highways until 12 o'clock M., on MONDAY, the 12th instant, for the construction of the following three-feet Sewers, viz.:—On Third street, between Race and Branch streets; Warren street, between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth streets; Twelfth street, from Monterey to Race street; thence westward on Race street to Race street; and on Eighth street, from Master street to the north curb line of Columbia avenue; and for the following two-feet-six-inch Sewers, viz.:—On Lancaster street, from Market to Thirty-third street, and on Tasker street, from Sixth to third street, and on Tasker street, from Sixth t eventh street.

The understanding to be that the contractor shall take bills prepared against the property fronting on said sewers to the amount of one dollar and fifty cents for each lineal foot of front on each side of the street as so much cash paid; the balance, as limited by ordinance, to be paid by the city.

When the street is occupied by a City Passenger Railroad track, the Sewer shall be constructed along side of said track in such manner as not to obstruct or interfere with the safe passage of the cars thereon; and no claim for remuneration shall be paid the contractor by the company using said track, as specified in Act of Assembly approved May 8, 1866. All hidders are invited to be present at the time and place of opening the said proposals. Each proposal will be accompanied by a certificate that a bond has been filed in the Law Department as directed by Ordinance of May 25, 1860. If the lowest bidder shall not execute a contract within five days after the work is awarded, he will be deemed as declining, and will be held liable on his bond for the difference between his bid and the next highest bid. Specifications may be had at the Department of Surveys, which will be strictly adhered to.

MAHLON H. DICKINSON,

Chief Commissioner of Highways. 4.8 Bt OFFICE OF ASSISTANT COMMISSARY SUB-SISTENCE. FRANKFORD ARSENAL, April 7, 1869.

FRANKFORD ARSENAL, April 7, 1869.
Sealed proposals, in duplicate, will be received by the undersigned at this office until 12 M., April 24, 1869, for furnishing the troops stationed at Frankford Arsenal with FRESH BEEF, of a good marketable quality, in equal proportions of fore and hind-quarters, excluding necks, shanks, and kidney tal-low; the beef to be delivered free of cost to the troops in such quantities and on such days as may be from time to time required by the proper authority, and to continue in force six months, or such less time as the Commissary-General shall direct, and subject to his approval, commencing on the 1st day subject to his approvas, control of May, 1869.

Upon acceptance of the offer security and bond in the sum of six hundred dollars will be required for the faithful performance of the contract.

NEW GOLDEN EAGLE FURNACE.

This is an entirely new heater. It is so constructed as to once commend itself to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast iron. It is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly air tight; self-cleaning, having no pipes or drums to be taken out and cleaned. It is so arranged with upright flues as to produce a larger amount of heat from the same weight of coal than any furnace now in use. The hygrometric condition of the air as produced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at once demonstrate that it is the only Hot Air Furnace that will produce a perfectly healthy atmosphere.

Those in want of a complete Heating Apparatus would do well to call and examine the Golden Eagle.
